EXAMINER'S AMENDMENT

Information Disclosure Statement

The IDS filed 31 December 2003 was previously considered with the Office Action mailed 06 October 2005. The IDS is attached to clarify that the fourth foreign patent document, JP 2000-204272, has been considered and to indicate the publication date for the second non-patent literature document, "Nanotubes in a Flash — Ignition and Reconstruction."

The IDS filed 29 April 2005 was also previously considered with the Office Action mailed 06 October 2005. The IDS was not initialed and is attached for purposes of initialing its reference cited, Ding et al. (US Patent No. 6,861,481).

Election/Restrictions

The species restriction indicated in the Office Action mailed 06 October 2005 has been withdrawn because of an allowed generic claim, Claim 1. Thus, Claims 17, 25, 26, and 35 are not withdrawn.

This application is in condition for allowance except for the presence of claims 39-59 directed to inventions non-elected without traverse. Accordingly, claims 39-59 are been cancelled.

Examiner's Amendment

An examiner's amendment to the record appears below. Should the changes and/or additions be unacceptable to applicant, an amendment may be filed as provided by 37 CFR 1.312. To ensure consideration of such an amendment, it MUST be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee.

Art Unit: 1732

The application has been amended as follows:

Claims 39-59 (Cancelled)

Reasons for Allowance

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The prior art of record does not teach or suggest the claimed process of structurally disrupting single-walled carbon nanotube material to activate a film's shrink characteristic. Specifically, the 35 USC 102(e) rejection is withdrawn in view of Applicant's Declaration filed 13 March 2006, and the 35 USC 103(a) rejection is withdrawn in view of Applicant's Arguments filed 15 June 2007, page 2, section A, regarding purposes of reinforcement and structurally disrupting running counter to each other.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
